Annual Report – 2013

Introduction

The Right to Information Act, 2005 is one of the most important legislations in the history of the Indian democracy, enacted by the Parliament of India which received the assent of the President of India on 15th June 2005. The RTI Act, 2005 was notified in the Gazette of India on the 21st June, 2005. and became fully into force on 12th October, 2005.

The Preamble of the RTI Act, 2005 reads as follows :-

“An Act to provide for setting out the practical regime of right to Information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities, in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority, the constitution of a Central Information Commission and State Information Commissions and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto”.

Transparency is a pre-requisite for good governance and democracy. This Act has created a system which enables the citizens to get information from the public authorities as a matter of right without any hurdle. This Act is a powerful instrument to ensure transparency and accountability in the administration of public authorities.

The provisions of the RTI Act, 2005 included obligations of public authorities, designation of Assistant Public Information Officers, Public Information Officers and Appellate Authorities in every public authority, constitution of Information Commissions in the Central and States of India and the power to make rules by the appropriate Government and by various Competent Authorities.

Powers and Functions of the State Information Commission

The Commission's mandate is to exercise the powers conferred on it and to perform the functions assigned to it under Section 18, 19, 20 in Chapter V of the RTI Act, 2005.

While inquiring into any matter relating to a complaint, the Commission has the same powers under Section 18(3) of the RTI Act, 2005 as are vested in a Civil Court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in respect of the following matters :-

- Summoning and enforcing the attendance of persons and compel them to give oral or written evidence on oath and to produce the documents or things;
- Requiring the discovery and inspection of documents;
- Receiving evidence on affidavit;
- Requisitioning any public records or copies thereof from any Court or office;
- Issuing summons for examination of witnesses or documents
- Any other matter which may be prescribed.

The Commission may, during the inquiry of any complaint under this Act, examine any record to which this Act applies which is under the control of the public authority and no such record may be withheld from it on any grounds.

The State Information Commission is the Second Appellate Authority under Section 19(3) of the RTI Act, 2005. A second appeal under Section 19(3) of the RTI Act against the decision of the Appellate Authority under Section 19(1) of the said Act, shall lie to the State Information Commission within ninety days from the date on which the decision should have been made or was actually received. The Commission may admit the appeal after the expiry of the period of ninety days if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

The decision of the Commission shall be binding. No Court shall entertain any suit, application or other proceeding in respect of any order made under this Act and no such order shall be called in question otherwise than by way of an appeal under this Act.

The Commission is empowered to impose penalties on erring State Public Information Officers and recommend disciplinary action against those who have, without any reasonable cause, refused to receive an application for information or has not furnished information within the time specified under sub-section (1) of Section 7 of the Act or malafidely denied the request for information or knowingly given incorrect, incomplete or misleading information or destroyed information which was the subject of the request or obstructed in any manner in furnishing the information. The quantum of penalty liable to be imposed is Rs.250/- each day till application is received or information is furnished subject to a total amount not exceeding Rs. 25,000/-.

Under Section 19(8) (a) of the Act, the Commission, while deciding appeals can require a public authority to take any such steps as may be necessary to secure compliance with the provisions of the Act.

Under Section 19(8)(b) of the Act, the Commission has the powers to require the public authority to compensate the complainant for any loss or other detriment suffered.

Office of the Tamil Nadu Information Commission

Having had no building of its own, the Tamil Nadu Information Commission continues to function in a rented building owned by the Tamil Nadu Slum Clearance Board at No. 2, Thiyagaraya Road, Teynampet, Chennai – 600 018 with an accommodation of 12750 sq-ft. Penalty

The Tamil Nadu Information Commission had issued show cause notices for imposing penalty on various Public Information Officers in respect of 806 cases. By invoking Section 20(1) of the RTI Act, 2005 the Commission had imposed a maximum penalty of Rs. 25,000/- each on Public Information Officers concerned in 20 cases. Under Section 20(2) of the RTI Act, 2005, the Commission had recommended for taking disciplinary action against Public Information Officers concerned in 8 cases. Under Section 19(8)(b) of the RTI Act, 2005, the Commission has the power to require the public authority to compensate the complainant for any loss or other detriment suffered. During the year 2013, the Commission by invoking the above section had ordered awarding of compensation to the appellants by the concerned public authority in 28 cases amounting to Rs. 83000/-.

Recommendations:-

The Commission has made several recommendations in the Annual Reports of the previous years. While reiterating those recommendations the following recommendations are made in this report :-

- (1) It is observed that many of the Public Informaion Officers and first Appellate Authorities still have inadequate understanding of the provisions of the RTI Act, 2005. Sensitization Programmes on RTI Act need to be organized by the Public Authorities periodically so as to make the implementation of the provisions of the Act more effective.
- (2) In a large number of cases, the Public Informaton Officers express their inability to provide the required information to the applicants due to non availability of the related records. The Government could therefore consider strengthening of Record Management System in the Departments so as mitigate the above problem.

- (3) It is necessary for more awareness among the common man is created on the purpose and outcome of the Act. Still a good section of the people think that the Act is to be used as a grievance redressal mechanism and the Information Commission has the authority to give directions to the Executive on redressing grievances like issue of ration card, providing house service connection, payment of pension and so on.
- (4) While most of the public authorities have uploaded information under Section 4 of the Act, many of them do not update regularly. Updating the information on a periodical basis would definitely reduce the applications and hence the first and second appeals.
